Please check one Primary Finance Option and a Secondary Option if the Primary Option selected does not cover 100% of tuition costs. Funding of at least 50% of your annual tuition is required for an option to be considered primary.

Primary Secondary

 Cash Plan: 100% cash payment submitted prior to each course start date.

 Financial Aid Plan: In order to secure deferment of tuition during the application process you must provide all documents required to complete the certification of federal financial aid funds. (Continuous attendance with no attendance breaks greater than 29 days is required to retain disbursed federal financial aid funds)

 Level Pay Plan: All payments are due on the 1st of every month, unless otherwise made previous arrangements.

 Tuition Reimbursement Plan: Available for students whose employers have a written reimbursement policy approved by Bridgepoint Education. Tuition will be deferred a maximum of 60 days from each course start date. To qualify for Tuition deferment you must submit a signed Tuition Reimbursement Certification and Authorization form, that includes two valid credit card numbers (debit cards are not accepted) and your authorization to charge your card. Your credit card will be automatically charged 60 days after each course start date for tuition if payment has not been received.

 Direct Bill Plan: Available for students whose employers have 100% tuition reimbursement. Employer must be approved by Bridgepoint Education. Tuition assistance vouchers or forms must be received by Bridgepoint Education at least five days prior to the start of each course. Tuition is only deferred for a maximum of 90 days from each course start date.

Late fees of $30.00 will be assessed if a course is not paid for in accordance with the chosen financial option. In addition, up to $30.00 will be charged for any declined credit card or returned check in accordance with state law. I have read, fully understand, and agree to abide by the terms of the finance option(s) chosen above. I also understand that I am financially responsible for any and all charges incurred no matter which option I have chosen.
